Surah 15 Surah Hijr

HIJR

THE LINK BETWEEN SURAH HIJR AND SURAH Ibraheem

By Name: The message delivered in Surah Ibraheem by means of various proofs and incidents of previous nations must be accepted by the believers. If one does not accept them, one will be punished and will then regret like the people of Hijr who were punished and regretful when they refused to accept the same message.

By Content: Surah Ibraheem warned people about the consequences of rejecting Towheed. Surah Hijr describes what happened to the previous nations when they rejected the message of Towheed that their Ambiyaas brought to them.

A SUMMARY OF THE SURAH

The Surah contains two logical proofs for Towheed (one brief and the other detailed). To warn people about the worldly consequences of disobedience, five examples are cited (three concerning previous nations and two concerning the Mushrikeen of Makkah). The Surah also consoles Rasulullaah on five occasions.

The Surah is introduced with the words, “These are the verses of the Book and the clear Qur'aan.” This verse encourages people to study the Surah further. Allaah then proceeds to mention the objective of the Surah when He says, “Many a time the Kuffaar will wish that they were Muslims” [verse 2]. Allaah warns people not to behave like the disobedient nations of the past because they will then regret just like the previous nations who regretted their kufr and wished that they were also Muslims.

“There was an appointed term (fixed) for (the destruction of) every town that We destroyed” [verse 4]. Allaah granted temporarily postpone the punishment of all those who rejected Towheed. Eventually, when they exceeded all bounds, the time came for them to be punished. Allaah says, “No nation can hasten their term (bring the date of their destruction forward), nor can they delay it.” [verse 5]

Allaah then replies to the objection raised by the Mushrikeen who said that Rasulullaah was insane and who in addition asked for an angel to descend from the heavens to confirm his Prophethood. Allaah says, “We send the angels only with the decision (the command to punish), and then (when they arrive with Allaah's punishment) they (the Kuffaar) will not be granted respite” [verse 8]. Allaah tells people that the angels do not descend upon the request of any person, but they follow Allaah's commands in this regard.

Allah then says in verse 9, "Without doubt We have revealed the Reminder (the Qur’aan)...." In a like manner, Allah also revealed the previous scriptures. Allah wishes to warn people that if they reject the Qur’aan, they will suffer the same fate as the previous nations who rejected their scriptures. With regard to the Qur’aan Allah says, "...and We shall certainly be its protectors."

Thereafter, Allah warns those who mock and threaten the Ambiyaa beginning with verse 10 where He says, "Undoubtedly we have sent messengers before you to the previous groups."

Further on, Allah reproaches the Kuffaar when He says, "If We open to them a door of the sky and they (repeatedly) climb it during the (entire) day (in perfect light), they will (reject this miracle and) say, 'Our eyes have merely been mesmerised. Indeed we are a bewitched people'" [verses 14 and 15]. Allah tells them that they should not ask for angels to descend because their obstinacy is such that they will not believe in something even more extraordinary.

Allah also speaks about the destruction of three nations:

1. The nation of Loot which begins from verse 57 where Allah says, "Ibraheem said (to the angels), 'What business do you have, O messengers?'"

2. The nation of Shu‘ayb beginning with the words, "Without doubt, the people of Aykah were oppressors..." [verse 78] and

3. The nation of Saalih, which is recounted from verse 80 where Allah says, “The people of Hijr rejected the Ambiyaa.”
In the name of Allaah, the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful.

1. Alif Laam Ra (Only Allaah knows the meaning of these letters). These are the verses of the Book and the clear Qur’aan (whose principles are clear, whose laws are explained and whose narrations are truthful).

2. Many a time (on the Day of Qiyaamah when they will see the success of the Muslims,) the Kuffaar will wish that they were Muslims.

3. (Since the Kuffaar refuse to listen to the message of Islaam.) Leave them to eat, to enjoy and let their hopes (of long lives and much wealth) make them negligent (of Imaam). Soon they will come to know (the error of their ways).

4. There was an appointed term (fixed) for (the destruction of) every town that We destroyed (from which they have no escape).

5. No nation can hasten their term (bring the date of their destruction forward), nor can they delay it. (The time of their period of prosperity and their downfall, like our birth and death, has already been decided)

6. They (the Kuffaar of Makkah) said, “O you upon whom the Qur’aan has been revealed (Muhammad صلی الله عليه وسلم)! You are certainly insane!”
7. “Why do you not come with angels (to verify that you are a Rasool) if you are truthful (in your claim that you are a Rasool and that the Qur'aan is from Allaah)?”

8. (Allaah warns the Kuffaar not to ask for angels to come to earth because) We send the angels only with the decision (the command to punish), and then (when they arrive with Allaah's punishment) they (the Kuffaar) will not be granted respite (for that is the last stage).

9. Without doubt only We have revealed the Reminder (the Qur'aan) and (by various means) We shall certainly be its protectors (ensuring that it remains unchanged throughout time).

10. (Consoling Rasulullah ﷺ not to worry about the mockery of the Kuffaar, Allaah says,) Undoubtedly We have sent Rusul before you to the previous groups (past nations).

11. (However, instead of following the Rusul) They (the people) ridiculed (and denied) every one of the Rusul that came to them.

12. In a like manner (as We had caused the mockery of the past nations to enter their hearts, so too) do We make it (the mocking of the Kuffaar of Makkah) enter into the hearts of the sinners (as a result of which, their hearts cannot accept the light of Imaan).

13. (Because of their mockery) They do not believe in it (the Qur'aan) even though the ways (the destination) of the previous people have passed (even though they know that the previous nations were destroyed for rejecting the revelation that their Ambiyaaz brought to them).

14. (In fact, the Kuffaar are so stubborn that even) If We open to them a door of the sky and they (repeatedly) climb through it during the (entire) day (in perfect light)...

15. ...they will (reject this miracle and) say, “Our eyes have merely been mesmerised (spellbound). Indeed we are a bewitched (spellbound) people.” (This is exactly what they would say about any other miracle that a Nabi shows them. It is for this reason that Allaah did not show the Kuffaar the miracles they had asked of the Ambiyaa.)

16. Verily We have placed stars in the sky and decorated it for spectators.

17. And We have safeguarded it (the sky) from every accursed (rejected) Shaytaan (who cannot reach it).

18. (The sky is protected from every Shaytaan) Except the one who steals a hearing (manages to overhear something from the angels). A clear (shining) flame (a star) pursues him (which either kills him or drives him insane). (When the Shayateen try to listen to the angels discussing future events, the angels throw stars at them. However, some manage to pass on to other Shayateen what they have heard before the star strikes them. The Shayateen then pass this information on to human fortune tellers mixed with hundreds of lies. When people discover that some of the predictions of these fortune-tellers come true, they become devoted to them, forgetting the hundreds of untruths that they had also predicted.)

19. We have spread out the earth, placed mountains on it (to stabilise it) and placed on it (cause to grow) a measured (specified) amount of everything.

20. We have placed the amenities (resources) of life on earth for you (everything that man requires to survive) and We have created those things (plants and creatures) for which you do not provide.

21. We have with Us the treasures of all things (rain, mineral wealth, food, spiritual guidance, etc) and We send them down only in stipulated quantities (as the need arises, according to Allaah’s wisdom).
22. We send the winds that fill the clouds with water, then send water from the sky which We give you to drink. You do not have the ability to store it (man cannot store rain water in as large a quantity as Allah does when He stores water in lakes, dams, rivers and in underground reservoirs of groundwater where massive quantities of water are stored for people to use whenever they need to).

23. Without doubt, it is We Who give life and (cause) death, and We will be the successors (only Allah will be Alive after everything is destroyed on the Day of Qiyaamah what the records of man remain with Allah).

24. Indeed, We know those of you who are first (those who inhabited the earth during the early days, the early Muslims and also those who stand in the front rows during congregational salah in the Masjid) and those of you who follow after (those who have lived afterwards, the later Muslims and those who occupy the back rows in the Masjid).

25. Certainly your Rabb Alone shall gather (resurrect) all of them (on the Day of Qiyaamah). Verily He is The Wise, The All Knowing.

26. Indeed we created man (Aadam) out of melodious sand extracted from moistened clay. (The various verses of the Qur'an individually refer to various stages in man's creation. The fact is that water was mixed with soil, turning it into clay. Then this clay was left until it began to decompose and become dark in colour. Thereafter the mould of Aadam was cast with this. When the clay dried and set, it became like potted clay that has a melodious sound when struck.)

27. And the Jinn (the first Jinn) We created before (man) out of Fire (mixed with air) derived from a scorching wind (a smokeless type of fire).
30. (Consequently) Every one of the angels prostrated before Al-Adam...

31. ...except Iblees. He refused to be among those who prostrated.

32. Allaah said, “O Iblees! What is the matter with you that you are not among those angels who have prostrated?”

33. He replied, “I am not one to prostrate before a human that You created out of melodious sand extracted from moistened clay.”

34. Allaah said, “Go from here (Jannah), for you are indeed an outcast.”

35. “You shall be accursed until the day of Qiyaamah.”

36. He (Iblees) said, “Grant me respite (postpone your punishment) until the day (of Qiyaamah) when they (mankind) will be resurrected.”

37. (Accepting his request,) Allaah said, “You are of those granted respite...

38. …until an appointed time (when the trumpet will be blown to sound the arrival of Qiyaamah).”
39. He (Iblees) said, “My Rabbi! Because You have sent me astray, I will certainly beautify things (have them with the attribution of evil) for them (mankind) on earth and lead them all astray (using all the devious means at my disposal).”

40. “(I shall mislead all) Except those bondsmen of Yours who are chosen (whom You have chosen to save from my guile and treachery).”

41. Allaah said, “This (being chosen because of doing good and refraining from evil) is the (absolute) straight path that leads to Me.”

42. (Allaah told Iblees further) “Indeed you will have no power (control) over My (chosen) bondsmen, except (that your control will be limited to) those deviant ones who follow you (because of ignorance and foolishness).”

43. “Verily Jahannam is their promised abode (eventually home).”

44. “It (Jahannam) has seven doors. Each door shall have a stipulated share of them.”

45. Those who adopt (proper) Taqwa will definitely be (enjoying themselves) in Jannaat and springs (in the Aakhirah).

46. (Angels will welcome them to Jannah saying,) “Enter it (Jannah) with peace and safety (here you will have no worries, fears, hardship, injuries or losses).”
Quraan Made Easy (Complete)  Surah Hijr (Hijr - 15)

47. We shall remove any ill-feelings (hatred and animosity towards other Muslims) that may be in their breasts. As brothers (with love and affection for each other) they (the people of Jannah) will be seated on couches, facing each other (as equals).

48. No difficulty (pain) shall afflict them there (in Jannah), neither will they be removed from there (they will live in Jannah forever).

49. (Allaab announces) Inform My bondsmen that I am certainly the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful (I shall forgive all sins when My bondsman repents sincerely) ...

50. ...and (inform them also) that they should not let Shaytaan deceive them into thinking that they can continue sinning and repent later because My punishment is definitely a most painful punishment (and they should never risk suffering My punishment).

51. And inform them (also) of Ibraheem's guests (the angels who visited Ibraheem in human form to inform him about the birth of his son Is'haaq and to warn him that they were going to destroy the people of Loot).

52. When they entered his presence, they greeted with Salaam. (However, when Ibraheem served them some food, they did not eat. Sensing that they had come to punish someone,) He (Ibraheem) said, “We are afraid of you.”

53. (Reassuring him,) They said, “Do not be afraid. Indeed, we wish to convey to you the good news of (the birth of) a knowledgeable (wise) child (by the name of Is'haaq, who will be born to your wife).”

54. (Surprised at the news,) He (Ibraheem) said, “Do you give me this good news when old-age has afflicted me (How can I father a child when I am such an old man)? What then is this very good news that you are delivering (please repeat what you said because it seems too astonishing)?”
55. They said, “We convey to you the (very) good news of a reality, so do not become of the despondent ones (Never lose hope in Allah’s power because nothing is impossible for Allah).”

56. He (Ibraheem) said, “I cannot lose hope because Only the deviant ones (the Kuffaar) are despondent of Allah’s mercy.”

57. Ibraheem said (to the angels), “What business do you have, O messengers (Why have you been sent to earth)?”

58. They said, “We have been sent to (destroy) a sinful nation.

59. (We shall destroy all of them) Except the family of Loot (because they are Mu'mineen). We shall surely rescue all of them (all the members of his family)...

60. …except his wife (who does not have Imaan). We have decided (Allah has decreed) that she be left behind (to be destroyed along with the sinners).”

61. (After leaving Ibraheem, the angels proceeded to inform Loot about their duty.) When the messengers came to the family of Loot...

62. …he said (to the messenger angels), “Indeed you are unfamiliar people.”
63. They said, “No (we are not human beings). In fact we (are angels who) have brought to you something (the punishment) which they (your people) used to doubt (that it would ever come to them).”

64. “(To reassure him, they added,) We have brought the truth to you and we are certainly from the truthful ones (you should therefore do exactly as we say).”

65. “So leave (the town) with your family during a portion (the last part) of the night, follow on their heels (to ensure that all of them are with you) and let none of you turn around (to look at what is to become of the others). Then proceed to where you have been commanded (to go to Shaam).”

66. We informed him of Our decision that the roots of these people shall be severed by the morning (they will all be destroyed without trace by the morning).

67. (As the angels were talking to Loot رضي الله عنه) The people of the town came rejoicing (they rushed happily to where Loot رضي الله عنه stood with the angels because they intended to commit sodomy with the angels whom they mis-took to be merely handsome men).

68. (Gauging their intention) Loot رضي الله عنه said, “These (surely) are my guests, so do not disgrace me (in front of them by making your intentions known to them)…”

69. …Fear (the punishment of) Allaah and do not humiliate me.”

70. They (the people) replied, “Have we not forbidden you from (associating with anyone in) the world (had you done what we told you, you would not be faced with this situation of being humiliated)?”
71. He (Loot $&&$£) said, “Here are my daughters (whom you may marry) if you must do something (about satisfying your sexual desires).”

72. By your life! They (the people of Loot $&&$£) were blinded in their intoxication (their intense desires made them oblivious of all good advice). (Nevertheless, they were unable to harm the angels at all.)

73. So (Allaah’s punishment finally came to them when) a scream seized them at sunrise (Jibra’eel $&&$£ gave a piercing scream that caused them to die with fear).

74. (Thereafter,) We turned them upside down (Jibra’eel $&&$£ lifted their towns into the sky and then dropped them upside down) and showered clay pebbles on them (each pebble was marked with the name of the person it was meant to strike).

75. Indeed in this are Aayaat for those who have (correct) foresight (by this they can understand the severe consequences of disobeying the Ambiyaa $&&$£).

76. These towns are along an accessible thoroughfare (the ruins of these towns fell on the road that the people of Makkah used when travelling to Shaam, making it easy for them to learn a lesson and thus believe in Rasulullaah $&&$£).

77. There is certainly a sign in this for the Mu’mineen.

78. Without doubt, the people of Aykah (the nation of Shu’ayb $&&$£) were oppressors (because they rejected the message of Shu’ayb $&&$£, cheated people in business, robbed people and committed Shirk).
79. So We extracted vengeance from them (by punishing them). Indeed the two of them (the ruins of the cities of the people of Loot and the city of the people of Shu’ayb) are along an accessible thoroughfare (a well travelled road that the people of Makkah used en route to Shaam).

80. The people of Hijr (the Thamud) rejected the Ambiyaa (although Saalih was the only Nabi who came to the Thamud, the verse mentions that they rejected all the Ambiyaa. This is so because rejecting the message of one Nabi is tantamount to rejecting all the Ambiyaa, since all their messages were the same).

81. Our Aayaat (such as the camel emerging from a mountain) came to them, yet they ignored these (turned their faces away).

82. They used to carve homes out of the mountains with peace (without any difficulty).

83. (However, despite their ingenuity and strength, Allaah’s punishment destroyed them when) A scream seized them during the morning (this scream of Jibra‘eel was so terrifying that it killed them).

84. Whatever they earned was of no benefit to them (because it neither saved them from Allaah’s punishment in this world nor will it save them in the Akhirah).

85. We have created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between them with the truth (with wisdom and for a purpose). Indeed Qiyaamah is approaching (when people will be punished for their wrongs), so pardon (the wrongs they do against you) with a most graceful pardon (without revenge and reproach).

86. Verily your Rabb is the (only) Great Creator, the All Knowing.
87. Verily We have granted you (O Muhammad ﷺ) seven verses that are often repeated (Surah Faatihah, which people recite very often, especially in salah), and the Glorious Qur’aan. (These are bounties that are eternal, which are of immense benefit to a person in his world and will earn him/her magnificent rewards in the Aakhirah. The harassment of the Kuffaar should therefore not be a source of grief.)

88. (Since you have these tremendous bounties, you should) Never focus your eyes on the enjoyment that We have granted to the various groups of the Kuffaar, do not grieve over them (over the fact that they do not accept Imaan. If they refuse to accept after you have made an effort to give them the message, do not bother with them), and (focusing your attention on those who have accepted, you should) lower your wings for the Mu’mineen (be gentle and forgiving towards them when making an effort to make them successful Muslims).

89. Say (to the Kuffaar), “Indeed I am but a clear warner (All I can do is warn you about the punishment you will suffer for rejecting Imaan. I have no power to make you accept).”

90. (Beware that We do not send Our punishment to you) As We had sent to the dividers...

91. …(who are) Those who divided the scriptures (revealed to their Ambiyaa ﷺ) into various portions (by accepting certain portions and rejecting others in a mocking manner).

92. By your Rabb! We will definitely question each one of them (on the Day of Qiyaama)

93. …about what they used to do (in the world).
94. (O Muhammad ﷺ) Clearly announce what (the message) you have been commanded with and ignore the Mushriken (do not worry about their disbelievers because it will not be able to stop Islam).

95. We are enough for you against those who ridicule... (mock)

96. ... And those who ascribe another Ilah to Allaah. Soon they will come to know (the error of their ways when Allaah’s punishment strikes them)!

97. We know very well that your bosom (your heart) is tightened (distressed, hurt) by what they say (their taunts and ridicule).

98. So (to combat the effects of this distress and hurt, you should) glorify the praises of your Rabb, be among those who prostrate (those who perform salah)...

99. ...and worship your Rabb until the certainty (death) comes to you. (When a person dedicates himself to Allaah’s worship and is concerned about the Aakhirah, he will not be greatly distressed by the troubles and worries of this world.)
